PRESS RELEASE & INVITE

Veterans across Indiana are invited to the Indiana State Capital on Tuesday, the 10th of January, 2023, for the 9th Annual Military & Veterans Legislative Day.

The day provides an opportunity for our Veterans to speak with lawmakers about the issues that are important to them. The day also provides opportunities to find out what legislation has been authored by members of the General Assembly. You are also encouraged to schedule a meeting with your Senator and/or Representative to let them know where you stand on proposed legislation.

This annual Indiana Military & Veterans Legislative Day will begin at 8:30 AM with a complimentary continental breakfast and the opportunity to visit several Veteran organization information booths.

At 10:30 AM, the day's program will start in the South Atrium on the 2nd floor. After a welcome from our Legislative Sponsors, Senator Michael Crider and Representative John L. Bartlett, we will be honored to hear from our Special Guest Speaker this year, Medal of Honor Recipient Sammy L Davis.

IMVLD is providing a Free lunch after the program. You are encouraged to ask your General Assembly Members to join you for lunch while you visit with them on the 3rd-floor for some privacy. While you are there, please make it a point to visit one of the 36 Veterans Organisations information tables made available to you.

Parking is free at the Indianapolis Zoo, and there will be a shuttle bus service every 15 minutes starting at 8:00 AM. The last pickup from the Statehouse is 1:45 PM.

If you have questions about this year's event, please get in touch with Don Hawkins, Chairman, at Hawkins@Veterans.ooo, 317-632-0500, or Chad Woodburn CoChairman, at cwoodburn@indianalegion.org.
